“Inspiration, Design, Technique: Revealing Masterpieces” on Saturday, July 22, from 5pm to 7pm at the Moffatt-Ladd House and Garden provides a special opportunity to meet master craftsmen and hear them talk about their work in a beautiful historical environment. “The evening will begin with the Masters talking about the early furniture in the Moffatt-Ladd collection that most inspires them,” noted Barbara Ward, director and curator of the

Moffatt-Ladd House. “But the real highlight of the evening is when the Masters unveil their new works and reveal their design process and special techniques.” Five Masters: John Cameron, Timothy Coleman, Jeffrey Cooper, Eric Grant, Richard Oedel, will be joined for the event by two invited artists: Owain Harris and Roger Myers. The reception will feature refreshments provided by local restaurants and a cash bar provided by Chill Catering. The event is open to the public and tickets are $10 per person. All proceeds will benefit the Moffatt-Ladd House & Garden and its commitment to education and historic preservation. Please reserve your tickets by calling (603) 430-7968 or emailing programs@moffatladd.org. Online tickets available at <http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/3022992>.

The New Hampshire Furniture Masters Association (NHFMA) was formed in 1993 with one goal in mind: to build public awareness of NH’s fine furniture makers to cultivate an audience for their goods closer to home. NHFMA’s mission is to set and maintain the highest standards of excellence in the work that members produce. Education is a critical component of the Furniture Masters’ mission and the group supports two education initiatives: the Prison Outreach Program and the Studio-Based Learning Program. The Moffatt-Ladd House & Garden, one of America’s finest Georgian mansions, is a National Historic Landmark owned and operated by The National Society of The Colonial Dames of America in the State of New Hampshire. The museum interprets the history of the inhabitants of the house from 1763 through 1900 within the context of American, New Hampshire, and Portsmouth history. It has been a museum since 1912 and is open every day for guided tours from June 1 through mid-October. For more information visit www.moffatladd.org.
